

Do not become a victim of trafficking!

- Listen to your intuition
- Do not hand over your documents to anyone
- Do not give your phone to anyone
- Agree on the price for transport before you start
- If you travel with someone in a car, ask for the exact address, his phone number and insist that he shows you a document
- Write down the car's plate number or take a photo and send it to a person you trust
- Stay in touch with people you trust while you are travelling, send photos to show, where you are

In case of emergencies, call the police at 112 or 133 from any phone.

In cases of suspicious activity concerning human trafficking call the human trafficking hotline:
